Re: Norris v. Pizza on Stone
Docket No.: 1:20-cv-06094-MKV

Your Honor:

The law firm of Rivkin Radler, LLP is counsel to Pizza on Stone LLC (“Defendant”) in connection with the above-referenced action.

I write pursuant to Your Honor’s Individual Practices, Section 2.G. to respectfully request an adjournment of the preliminary conference currently scheduled for November 5, 2020 and an extension of time to submit a joint letter and case management plan currently due on October 29, 2020. The reason for this extension is that this firm has recently been retained to represent Defendant Pizza on Stone LLC and the additional time will afford us the opportunity to obtain and review pertinent information, investigate the claims, and for the Parties to discuss the allegations together before expending additional resources to litigate and appear for the initial conference.

Accordingly, the Parties respectfully request, that the joint letter and case management plan currently due on October 29, 2020 be extended to and include November 29, 2020 and that the preliminary conference be adjourned to a date thereafter that is convenient for the Court. There have been no previous requests to extend the time to submit the joint letter and case management plan or to adjourn the preliminary conference and I write with consent of all counsel.

Respectfully submitted,

RIVKIN RADLER LLP
